the furthest covering no less than 2 million nautical miles in her lifetime. She was on a seven-day visit to the Philippines from March 16 to 22. She left Spain in October 2020 to retrace Ferdinand Magellan's original route 500 years ago.

Local government officials were at the Port of Cebu to welcome the Spanish crew together with Amaya Fuentes Milani, the Spanish Embassy's deputy head of missions. The crew were entertained by Sinulog dancers. Though the ship's crew were not allowed to disembark for safety and health reasons, Elcano's Captain Santiago de Colsa thanked the people of Cebu for the warm welcome during the visit.

Cafe Laguna "Great service from the staff, as always. Social distancing between tables and other customers is implemented diligently (other customers are seated far away from the table we were occupying); other notable preventive measures can be observed as well, like wrapped plates and utensils being set on the table. Overall, it feels really safe and comforting to eat at Cafe Laguna during the new normal."
